1. [REDACTED] DD/P, referred to this Office a draft of a regulation regarding dissemination of information on individuals in this country. This draft is to be approved by Shef Edwards, W. Pforzheimer, and DD/I. I pointed out that it would be inappropriate for DD/I to approve before the others and requested that it be referred back to us after this approval had been obtained.

2. [REDACTED] called to suggest that O/NE work directly with Mr. Dulles in setting up the pre-IAC briefings. I checked this with Mr. Amory who approved, with the understanding that this Office would be informed of the time of the pre-briefing. OAD/NE will advise in advance, of hour set for the IAC briefing of DCI.

Handwritten: ADNE

3. [REDACTED] Office called requesting two additional seats for the 7 April IAC-type briefing. I assured them that we would make every effort to comply with [REDACTED] request and arranged with [REDACTED] for this.

4. I staffed out the list of War College lectures for the month of April. This included attendance by ADD/I, representatives of the DD/A Offices, of O/NE, O/SI, and O/RR. The list was then turned over to [REDACTED] for the preparation of the necessary letters and the advising of the Office of Training in accordance with existing procedure.
